THE BURGLARS SECRET

Rumor has it the Dinner Set Gang never left a party empty-handed... except one. In the Fat Cats' study, they found a small oak barrel resting quietly in the corner. Inside: whiskey softened with butter and time. They poured a glass, took a sip... and decided some treasures are too good to steal.

BUILD YOUR MARTINI

Before it was ordered in casinos, it was stirred in drawing rooms.

Rumour has it certain well-dressed gentlemen passed quietly through a few Fat Cats mansions — and helped make it famous.

We still stir ours properly, with a lemon twist.
